

COMMITTEE NAME:	Stewardship
Chairperson:	Dana Schmidt 847-772-5983 dcs870@sbcglobal.net
General committee information:	The STEWARDSHIP committee's mission is to empower the congregation to be good stewards of the Christian faith and encourage them to take steps toward utilizing their unique God-given gifts. Responsibilities include understanding the financial needs of the church, planning and conducting the "annual response" program, and providing year long stewardship education and programming.
Areas where we need the most help:	Help plan and lead quarterly theme events for the 2011 calendar year: i.e., good steward of the Earth (i.e. green), use of your time, etc.
Want to start getting involved but are not sure where to start?	Consider contacting the chairperson or committee member or attending one of our committee meetings to understand what we do and where your talents might help us meet our objectives.
Want to sign up for a job that you can do on your own time schedule?	Consider signing up for: Temple Talk - 10 minute talk during church service as needed, Prep work and practice needed for your talk.
Want to sign up for a job that is a one-time event and not on-going?	Consider signing up for: Need help with slide presentation, analysis of data, research
TASKS	DESCRIPTION OF TASK FREQUENCY/TIME COMMITMENT/SKILL REQUIRED
Committee Member	Attend monthly meetings and lead tasks and follow-up on actions
Secretary	Take minutes and meeting and publish - including detailed list of actions
Quarterly Theme Leader	See description above
Publicity	Write articles for monthly church newsletter and weekly bulletins