Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!
O my soul, praise him, for he is your health and salvation!
Let all who hear now to his temple draw near,
joining in glad adoration!

What is this place where we are meeting?
Only a house, the earth its floor.
Walls and a roof sheltering people,
windows for light, an open door.
Yet it becomes a body that lives
when we are gathered here,
and know our God is near.

Lord, thee I love with all my heart;
I pray thee, ne'er from me depart;
with tender mercy cheer me.
Earth has no pleasure I would share, yea, heav'n itself were void and bare
if thou, Lord, were not near me.
And should my heart for sorrow break,
my trust in thee can nothing shake.
Thou art the portion I have sought;
thy precious blood my soul has bought.
Lord Jesus Christ,
my God and Lord, my God and Lord,
forsake me not! I trust thy word.

for all the blessings of the light.
Keep me, oh, keep me, King of kings,
beneath thine own almighty wings.

Sleep, my child, and peace attend thee
All through the night;
Guardian angels God will send thee

Hill and dale in slumber sleeping,
I my loving vigil keeping,
All through the night.

You who dwell in the shelter of the Lord,
who abide in this shadow for life,
say to the Lord: "My refuge,
my rock in whom I trust!"

bear you on the breath of dawn,
make you to shine like the sun,
and hold you in the palm of his hand.

wheat that in dark earth many days has lain;

ABOUT DOUG WILLIAMS

Born in North Tonawanda, N.Y., Doug began his church music career quite early once piano lessons commenced at age 6. As early as 3rd grade he accompanied hymn singing for St. Paul Lutheran school classroom devotions and, after 4th grade, Doug was invited to study organ in order to serve as school chapel organist from 5th until 8th grade graduation. Piano teachers included Esther Strehlow, Theresa Wambsganss, and Thomas Gutowski. His organ teachers included Janet Schanbacher, Sylvia Richert Schumacher, Thomas Gutowski, and Thomas Swan. During his high school years Doug served as co-organist at his home congregation, St. Paul Lutheran Church, substitute organist throughout the Niagara Falls region, and as Organist and Choir Director at St. Mark Lutheran, North Tonawanda. He was invited to play an organ recital for the Eastern District (LC-MS) Convention at Keuka College in the Finger Lakes region of NY, and performed an organ re-dedication recital at St. John's Lutheran Church, North Tonawanda.

Doug received the Bachelor of Arts in Education degree with an emphasis in Parish Music from Concordia College (now Concordia University Chicago) in River Forest, IL, where he studied organ with Herbert Gotsch and Steven Wentz, and harpsichord with Natalie Jenne. He has served in part- and full-time teaching and church music positions at Lutheran schools and churches in Elgin, Oak Lawn, Chicago, Des Plaines, and Schaumburg, IL, and Dallas, TX. In Oak Lawn, IL, Doug oversaw the installation and played the dedicatory recital on the new Berghaus pipe organ at St. Paul Lutheran Church.

In addition to work as a church musician, Doug sang and recorded professionally with the Schola Cantorum of St. Peter-in-the-Loop (Chicago) Catholic Church, accompanied the Windy City Gay Chorus, worked extensively in the music publishing and sales industry, and for a time owned and operated a church music sales business.

Doug serves All Saints Lutheran Church as Cantor, now in his twelfth year, where he directs adult, children's, and handbell choirs, plans worship, and plays organ and piano for both traditional and contemporary worship. He prepares and conducts the annual Advent/Christmas Cantata for choir and orchestra, and has played organ and piano recitals in the area. In 2015, Doug played the dedicatory recital on All Saints' Rodgers Infinity 361 hybrid organ which combined 10 ranks of wind-blown pipes with a new digital console and audio system.

When not making music, Doug enjoys reading non-fiction and historical fiction books and researching his family history: Lutheran and Catholic ancestors of Germanic origin.
